

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

What's going to happen now?

Learning Outcome

Describe hypothetical situations in written and spoken interactions according to work and social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What will you have done by tomorrow morning?
- What are your future career plans?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about money, emotions, and behavior.
- I can talk about future action.
- I can talk about what I will be doing or what I will have done.

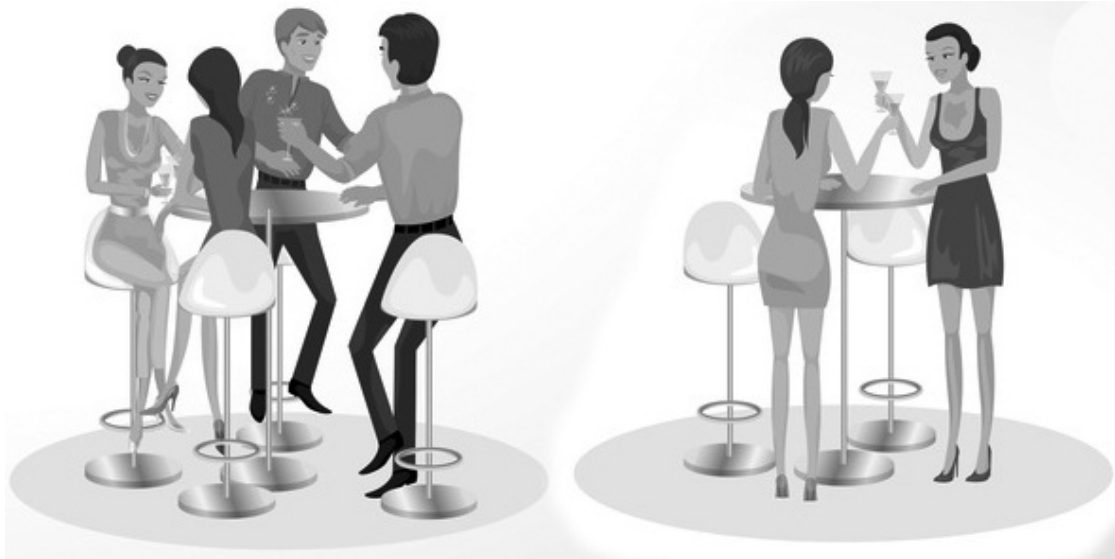

Let's Explore!

Kevin and Peter talk about networking!

* "Networking" means socializing in order to find work or information about careers.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Kevin: So Peter, what are you planning on doing over the next few years?

Peter: I am thinking a lot about my career these days. I will have worked freelance for a full year in a couple of months. I like it, but I need a full-time position with benefits. By this time next year, I'll have found that position and made some money. If I haven't, I'll be starting up my own company. My five year plan is that I'll have become more stable financially and more secure in my career. I mean, I like writing press releases, but I think I can do more.

Kevin: It's all about networking. Are you doing anything tonight around 7?

Peter: Yeah, I'm writing. My deadline is early morning. Why?

Kevin: I'm going to go to a shindig where there will be people in the film industry and writers, editors, and a host of other professions linked to yours. I just thought if you were free, you could come.

Peter: Yeah, thanks. I'll be sitting at my desk and cranking out material.

Kevin: Well it's free and Mary and I are going to be there until at least midnight, so if you finish early ...

Peter: I'll be writing solidly, so I probably won't be able to make it. Next time, though. I think it's a good idea to get out there and shmooze with people, especially since I've been a bit of a hermit lately.

Kevin: Let's keep in touch and maybe we can do it next time.

Let's Practice!

Kevin asks Peter about his perceptions* of his career.

*When you talk about your "perceptions", you talk about your appreciation on a topic.

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. What are you planning on doing over the next few weeks?
2. I'm thinking a lot about my career these days.
3. I like writing press releases.
4. I'm writing tonight around 7.
5. Mary and I are going to be here until at least midnight.

Let's Practice!

Peter has clear ideas about his future plans.

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences.

1. will / for / freelance / worked / . / year / have / a / full / I

2. year, / that / time / I'll / position / have / found / By / next / . / this

3. stable / become / . / I'll / have / more

4. at / my / be / desk / sitting / new / . / I'll

5. evening / be / I'll / writing / every / .

Extension Activity

Write a timeline about your career goals for the future.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of your future in 5, 10 and 20 years from now.
- Write a timeline of the events you think will happen related to your career for each time.
- Talk about your goals with a friend using the timeline. (Use present continuous, future continuous and future perfect)
- Ask your friend about his/her goals.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I think and create a timeline about the future of my career.

☐
☐

I talk about my future career goals.

☐
☐

I ask about a friends future career goals.

☐
☐

Target Words

- secure (adjective): safely attached in relation to something or someone e.g. I'll have become more stable financially and more secure in my career.
- shindig (noun): a party
e.g. I'm going to go to a shindig.
- a host of (expression): a large number of something e.g. There is a host of other professions linked to yours.
- solidly (adverb): having relative firmness
e.g. I'll be writing solidly.
- to get out (verb): to move to or from a position
e.g. I think it's a good idea to get out there.
- hermit (noun): someone who chooses to live alone or spend most of their time alone
e.g. I've been a bit of a hermit lately.
- shmooze (verb): talk with someone in a friendly and informal way, often for personal gain e.g. I think it's a good idea to get out there and shmooze with people.

Learning Points

The Future Continuous and Future Perfect Tenses vs. Regular Future Tenses

You use the Future Continuous tense to discuss something happening at a specific time in the future.

Use the Future Perfect tense to talk about an action in the future before a specific time in the future.

Look at the chart for a comparison of the other future tenses.

Name	Use	Example
The Modal Will	talk about things that are not decided; make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future; make predictions	I probably won't be able to make it.
Be going to	when you talk about intentions	I'm going to go to a shindig.
Present Continuous	when you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future	What are you planning on doing over the next few years?
Simple Present	when you talk about schedules	My deadline is early morning.
Future Continuous	the action will have started before that moment but it will not have finished at that moment	I'll be sitting at my desk and cranking out material.
Future Perfect	think of the Future Perfect tense like the Present Perfect tense, but instead of your viewpoint being in the present, it is in the future	I will have worked freelance for a full year in a couple of months.

The structure of the Future Continuous tense is:

Subject + will + be + verb -ing

The structure of the Future Perfect tense is:

Subject + will + have + past participle

Examples:

- By this time next year, I'll have found that position and made some money.

Learning Points

- If I haven't, I'll be starting up my own company.
- My five year plan is that I'll have become more stable financially and more secure in my career.
- I'll be writing solidly, so I probably won't be able to make it.

