

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

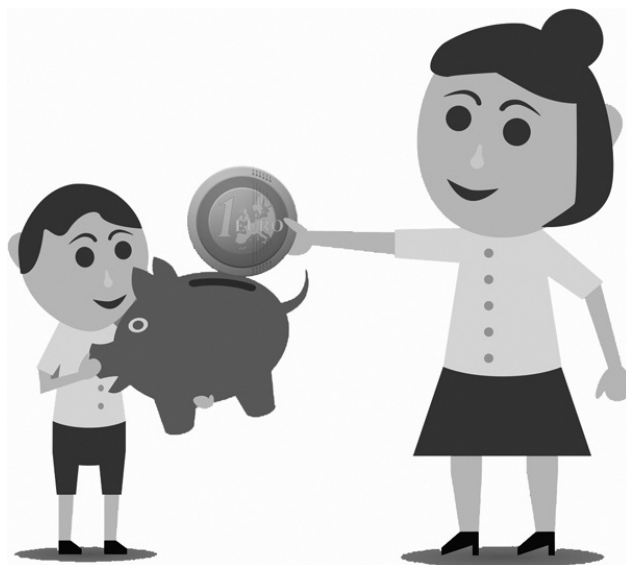

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

How long will I be working?

Learning Outcome

Describe situations in spoken interactions according to social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Are you someone who can easily save money for the future? Explain.
- Are people in your country able to save money for retirement? Why? Why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs, work and money.
- I can talk about future action.
- I can talk about what I will be doing or what I will have done.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa, Peter and Sally get serious about the future!

* To "get serious" means to finally take something seriously.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Back home safe and sound!
- Sally: Let's grab a taxi.
- Vanessa: Peter's picking us up soon. Oh, there he is! Peter!
- Peter: Hey girls! I'm glad you had a great trip. Glad you kept me up to date while you were away. Will you be heading back to work tomorrow?
- Sally: Yes, I'll be blogging!
- Vanessa: I am putting in at least 60 hours at the restaurant this week. If I can keep that up, I'll have paid for almost half my trip by the end of the month.
- Peter: I wish I could have gone with you guys but I have a plan.
- Sally: You've been so elusive about your future. What's your plan?
- Peter: In five years, I'll have saved enough money to buy a house. Before that happens I'll have started my own PR company. Basically for the next two years I am going to spend as little money as possible.
- Vanessa: That sounds reasonable. I will also stop squandering my money. It's going to be a challenge.
- Sally: Money doesn't grow on trees! You have to keep an eye on your money.
- Vanessa: I am starting a retirement fund as soon as I pay off the trip. I meet with someone at the bank tomorrow. It opens at 8:30 and I have the first appointment.
- Sally: Good idea. I just hope I'm getting the best returns on my investments.
- Peter: You guys will be fine. You're ahead of the game.
- Vanessa: I don't know. I have friends who have already squirreled away enough savings to retire!

Let's Practice!

Tom talks about his financial plans.

Instructions: Circle or underline all the vocabulary related to jobs, work and money in the dialogue.

I'm really worried about my finances. I believe I'll have to start using my money reasonably because I really want to be able to retire. First I'll have to invest some of my savings in order to get a good return from them. Second, I'll start looking for a job that needs me to work extra hours. If I can find one of those, I'll be able to afford a house in approximately two years.

Let's Practice!

Peter, Sally and Vanessa talk about their hopes.

Instructions: Say if the sentences talk about things people will be doing or if they talk about things they will have done at some point in the future. write will be doing or will have done after each sentence.

1. I'll have saved enough money to buy a house. _____
2. I am putting in at least 60 hours at the restaurant this week. _____
3. Before that happens I'll have started my own PR company. _____
4. I'll have paid for almost half of the trip by the end of the month. _____
5. Will you be heading back to work tomorrow? _____
6. I will also stop squandering my money. It's going to be a challenge. _____

Extension Activity

Ask someone about her/his future.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of 12 questions to ask someone about her/his future.
- Write down the questions, making sure that you use various verb tenses (simple present, going to, present continuous, future continuous, future perfect and simple future).
- Find two people and ask them the questions.
- Take notes on their answers to each question.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I think of and write down 12 questions about the future.

☐ ☐

I ask two people the questions.

☐ ☐

I take notes on their answers.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to keep up to date (expression): to provide the latest information to someone e.g. I need you to keep me up to date while you're away.
- safe and sound (adjective): free from danger or injury
e.g. I'm back home safe and sound!
- elusive (adjective): hard to understand
e.g. You've been so elusive about your future.
- reasonable (adjective): fairly or moderately good e.g. That sounds reasonable.
- to keep an eye on (expression): to watch someone or something or stay informed about something e.g. You have to keep an eye on your money.
- returns (noun): the monetary benefits one gets back from investing their money e.g. I just hope I'm getting the best returns on my investments.
- to be ahead of the game (expression): to have an advantage in a competitive situation e.g. You're ahead of the game.
- to squirrel away (expression): save up for future use
e.g. I have friends who have already squirreled away enough savings to retire!

Learning Points

The Future Continuous and Future Perfect Tenses

You use the Future Continuous tense to talk about something happening at a particular time in the future.

You use the Future Perfect tense to talk about an action in the future before another action in the future. This is the past in the future.

When you use the Future Continuous tense, the action will have started before that moment but it will not have finished at that moment.

For example:

I will be studying at the library at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

The person will start studying at some point in the future and be studying at 4 p.m. It is not clear when the person will stop studying.

When you use the Future Perfect, you can sometimes think of the Future Perfect tense like the Present Perfect tense, but instead of your viewpoint being in the present, it is in the future.

For example:

You can call me at work at 8 a.m. I will have arrived at the office by 8.

The train will leave the station at 9 a.m. You will arrive at the station at 9:15 a.m. When you arrive, the train will have left.

Look at the chart for the structure of the Future Continuous and Future Perfect tenses:

Name	Structure	Example
Future Continuous	will (not) + be + verb -ing	Will you be heading back to work tomorrow?
Future Perfect	will + have + past participle	In five years, I'll have saved enough money to buy a house.

Examples:

- I'll have paid for almost half of the trip by the end of the month.
- I'll have saved enough money to buy a house.
- Before that happens I'll have started my own PR company.
- Will you be heading back to work tomorrow?
- I'll be blogging!

Learning Points

Talking About Future Actions

You can use four different tenses to talk about the future.

When you talk about a things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.

When you ask about intentions, you use be going to.

When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.

When you talk about schedules, you use the Simple Present.

Will	I will also stop squandering my money.
Be going to	Basically for the next two years I am going to spend as little money as possible.
Present Continuous	Peter's picking us up soon.
Simple Present	It opens at 8:30.

Examples:

- I am putting in at least 60 hours at the restaurant this week.
- I will also stop squandering my money.
- It's going to be a challenge.
- I am starting a retirement fund as soon as I pay off the trip.
- I meet with someone at the bank tomorrow before work.
- It opens at 8:30 and I have the first appointment.
- You guys will be fine.

